A World Away

In Beverly Hills, a 1930 home is imbued with European touches, reinvigorating its old Hollywood charm.

Above: A Circa Lighting chandelier in the dining room coordinates with the sconces the clients brought from their London home. Beneath are a Tommi Parzinger sideboard and table and Dominique chairs, all from 1stdibs. Draperies in an Osborne & Little velvet hang off hardware from Kravet. The painting is by Maria Luisa Hernandez.

Opposite: The kitchen's crown jewel is a restored O'Keefe & Merritt stove from Savon Appliance. A Kohler farm sink pairs with Newport Brass taps from Mission West Kitchen and Bath, where Battista also sourced the Silestone countertops. The wall and floor tiles are from Solar Antique Tiles. Nanz hardware accents the cabinetry. The pendant is by Charles Edwards.
